1. Laptop Lunches

Laptop Lunches are American-style bento boxes designed to help families pack nutritious, environmentally friendly lunches for school, work and travel. The sustainable, waste-free lunch containers, which come with a book of healthy lunch ideas and lunch-making recipes, are reusable, recyclable and dishwasher safe. They don't contain phthalates, bisphenol A (BPA) or lead.

Two new products – the Alien and Flower Fun – are insulated and made of 100 percent polypropylene fabric. They come with five inner food containers, a water bottle and a set of utensils. Extra sets of inner containers are also available.

Complete Bento Systems retail for $37.99. For a list of local retailers or to purchase online, visit www.laptoplunches.com.

2. Lunch totes

These insulated, lined lunch totes are zippered and washable. Some have a container at the bottom and a separate upper-lined compartment. Colors include green, royal blue, pink stripe, hot pink, chocolate, blue and red. They are also available in polka dot.

The smaller totes are $19.95 and the large lunch totes with bottom compartment are $24.95.

Free monogramming can be done overnight. Shipping is available. Shop Make it Personal, located in the Charleston Market, visit makeitpersonal-online.com or call 722-3411.

3. FUNtainer beverage bottles

These 12-ounce fun drink bottles are made of unbreakable stainless steel. TherMax double-wall vacuum insulation keeps beverages cold for 12 hours. Features a hygienic push button lid with pop-up straw. Comes in many different fun themes like Barbie, Star Wars and Scooby Doo. Recommended for ages 5–12. Retail for $14.99 and available at Toys “R” Us (toysrus.com) and online retailers.

4. Zak! lunch bags

Whether it's heading back to school or to a picnic in the park, Zak lunch bags provide plenty of insulation to keep food cool. And because they feature the characters that children love, these are the bags that kids want and parents trust.

The Zak lunch bag is food-safe and made with double-stitched seams and durable materials that easily wipes clean. Padded handles offer extra comfort. Matching accessories available. The G.I. Joe bag has a suggested retail price of $13.49 and the Disney Princess bag has a suggested retail price of $14.95. Available at Wal-Mart, Target and other retail stores and online retailers.
