

NEW TWIST This unique design allows you to rotate a watering can spout for easy storage. 3-quart, $14.99; 1-quart, $9.99; oxo.com.

EASEL DOES IT Stop fighting your cookbooks. The Folding Alder Wood stand holds them open at four angles. $24.95; barnesandnoble.com.

Thrifty Nifty Gifts

Family and friends will guess you paid twice as much as you really did for these trendy treasures. Your secret is safe with us

By Bill Newcott and Frank Yuvancic
Photographs by Lisa Shin

BIG PICTURE Don't be fooled: the tiny Acer Aspire One AO751h has a surprisingly large screen (11.6 inches), plus a full-size keyboard, all in a slim, 2.6-pound package. In blue, red, black, and white. $350; us.acer.com.

SIP-SIP, HOORAY! Keep your drinking water fresh in stainless steel, toxin-free sipper bottles. 16-ounce, $14; 24-ounce, $17; innate-gear.com.

RING BEARER Jewelry, watches, and spare change find a classy resting place in this nickel-plated trio of graceful lily pads. Measures nearly 5 inches high. $39.95; redenvelope.com/lifestyle.

ROSE BOWLS Stacked up, they're artwork; scattered on a table, they're a garden of serving bowls. Set of four in one color, $29.99; zak.com.

FACE TIME An electronic brain in the Sony Cyber-shot S950 digital camera recognizes up to eight faces in one frame and focuses on each one. $129; sonystyle.com.

