

STARTERS/shopping

THE LIST

what to buy now

Paul Smith Coffeepot / $599
For the 50th anniversary of Danish housewares firm Stelton, design legend Paul Smith reimagines its iconic 1.5-liter stainless pitcher with a sleek Bakelite handle. "AddColour" bright coffeepot; tableartonline.com

Cotton Napkins / $28 FOR 4
Get into the camping spirit (even if you're just in the backyard) with napkins by Pendleton that give classic cowboy style a hip modern update. "Buffalo Check" 20-inch napkins in red and black; pendleton-usa.com

Lobster Cracking Kit / $40
Eight claw crackers and seafood picks come in a hand-carved box that's perfect for taking on a road trip to the shore. Makes a great gift, too. Maine Lobster Kit; thenexinscotguild.com

WIN THIS AT bonappetit.com*

Ice Cream Keeper / $12
Go ahead, linger over summer's best treat. Stash a pint of your favorite ice cream in this insulated cooler designed to keep it from melting too fast. Ice cream "Tabbie" in kiwi by Zak! Designs; laprimashops.com

Table Runner / $49
Personalize your table with a chic monogrammed 54-inch runner made from 100 percent linen that softens over time; choose up to three hand-stenciled letters to make it your own. emersonmade.com

WIN THIS AT bonappetit.com*

Vintage Bottle Labels / $2 FOR 10
Dress up homemade juices and iced tea with old-fashioned labels. Stick them on bottles, attach string to make hanging tags, or use them as place cards. "Good to the Last Sip" 3x1-inch labels; papiervalse.com —ELISA HUANG

PHOTOGRAPHY BY CRI DIGITAL STUDIO (5); COURTESY OF STELTON (COFFEEPOT)