

want your own?
Zak spoons,
$15 for set of 4,
Amazon.com

so yesterday Teacup for the tea. Boring. Some of us prefer the sweet stuff to the green (tea) stuff.
hip revival Ditch the bowls and serve scoops of ice cream in cups. And don't forget the proper tools...we say bright and bold plastic spoons. Obviously!

so yesterday The salad plate is ready to load up on all of those leafy, good-for-you-greens. (Sure it is.) hip revival We're thinking egg salad on pumpernickel. Now that's one way to make use of a petite plate. We heart bright circles, florals and stripes—all together!

Mix and match? (So last season.) It's more like, mix it in any time of day!

so yesterday Serving dinner solely on formalware. Can you say stuffy?
hip revival Have you had the chance to meet our good friend, melamine? This shatterproof material is cheap and colorful. And if you insist on the linens, tie 'em up with something fun, like a poppy flower ring.

click
Find décor ideas
under 50 bucks at TheNest.com/under50

